VFW Auxiliary hosts Christmas party for Peak Community Service

Mary Skelton

On Dec. 4, 2019, the VFW Auxiliary held a Christmas party for 22 Peak Community Service clients and five helpers at Winamac Post 1728. The clients visited at 10:30 a.m. and were greeted by three auxiliary members before heading out to get their beverages before lunch. They proceeded back into the hall and were served a luncheon of Grillers, french fries, fruit cocktail, cookies and ice cream.

After lunch they played a little toss the ball in the basket and received tattoos while Christmas music played in the hall. Beth Sutton Cummins, ventriloquist, then put on a delightful show for them with her Rudolph the Red Nosed Reindeer and Mrs. Claus dolls. Many of the clients sang along with her. She was a joy to watch and listen to for sure. Soon there was an amazing entrance by Santa Claus. The clients love him dearly and each and every one proclaimed they had been good this year.

They went to sit by Santa individually and opened their gifts of a sweatshirt with their name on and a stuffed animal. A gift of new videos was given to the center also for them to enjoy later.

It is such a joy to have this party every year and the clients look forward to it. This tradition was started more than 30 years ago by one of the auxiliary charter members

Clara Roudebush. It is an honor to continue this not only for the clients but in her memory also. So until next year have a fabulous 2020.

Thank You

We would like to thank everyone who has supported our family through Steve's illness and passing. We have been blessed to have our family, friends and amazing community's support throughout his fight. From hospital visits, animal care, transportation help, provided meals, fundraisers, prayers and comforting words, to the amazing benefit that was held for our family, WE THANK YOU! We are beyond overwhelmed by the kindness we have been shown and are so very appreciative.

Thank you to the professionals: Dr. Utes, Dr. Marvel, Dr. Harwood, St. Vincent Indianapolis and Dr. Satorious, Pulaski Memorial Hospital, Kindred Hospice, PMH Health Care Center, Mary T. Klinker Veterans Resource Center and their staffs. We thank you for your efforts, his care and also for your compassion.

We'd like to thank Wastequip for their generosity and support throughout Steve's fight. We are so very thankful that Steve worked for such a supportive and loyal company. Also, a special thanks to the many customers of Steve's who have sent their condolences. We appreciate you all.

We would also like to thank the VFW for the wonderful funeral tribute and graveside military service. Both were an honor of his service as a Marine, and for his love of America. We also greatly appreciated the post funeral lunch you provided. Steve loved his VFW family and we are very thankful for you all.

We would like to thank Pastor Jeff and our First Christian Church family for officiating/hosting Steve's funeral, as well as all of the love, prayers, guidance and support throughout.

We also thank Wally and Janet Hooker (Family and Friends Funeral Home) for everything that you arranged for Steve. It was very special and handled with genuine heartfelt guidance. You led us through the process with such love and compassion. Please accept our heartfelt thanks and gratitude.

And to all of you that sent prayers and positive vibes... we felt them... Thank you!!

With love,
 Trina, Gavin (Destiny), and Cooper Fulmer and our extended families

The family of Bob Kellie would like to send many thanks to those who have helped us by bringing food, sending flowers, sending cards, visiting, praying and calling the house. We want to especially thank the kindness we received from Guardian Angels Hospice, the tenderness and care from Kyle Rans of Harrison-Metzger & Rans Funeral Home and the beautiful service provided by Rev. Michelle White from the First United Methodist Church. We also appreciate the ladies of the church who prepared a wonderful meal following Bob's memorial service. Thank you for the generosity of those who made memorial contributions in honor of Bob.

Thank you,
 Joyce Kellie, Liz Kellie-McClure and family
