HERE'S WHAT YOU MISSED in this week's PULASKI COUNTY JOURNAL

Hall of fame comes calling for Hendryx

Paul Hettinger

As far back as the 1930s, UCLA Bruins football coach is on record saying, “Winning isn’t everything; it’s the only thing.” Veteran coach John Hendryx would take exception to that statement and has just the opposite approach. His coaching philosophy, along with his outstanding record, has landed him in the Indiana Football Hall of Fame.

“This means I’ve been doing this a long time,” Hendryx chuckled. He then got serious, saying, “It’s very humbling. The whole thing is humbling to me. When you start coaching, this is something that you don’t think; hey, when this is all over, this is where I want this to end. That’s just not how it starts. I feel very honored, blessed and pretty doggone lucky.”

When Hendryx talks about football, his coaching record isn’t the first thing he wants to discuss. It’s the relationships he has built over the years and the lasting friendships he’s developed.

“The goal is never to win football games. We all want to win. We work hard to win and do whatever we can to give the kids the best chance to win, but in the end, that’s not what’s important. I was fortunate because I had a dad that made sure I understood that from the get-go. The coaching part is fun and enjoyable. You want to stay competitive, but it’s just a tool and that’s how I look at football,” Hendryx explained.

He went on to say, “Football is a tool to have some kind of positive influence on these kids’ lives. If I do that and we lose every game, then I’m doing a heck of a job. Like all coaches, I’ve had some terrible seasons, but I thought we did the best job in some of those seasons because of the way we handled those kids. I like to win games, don’t get me wrong, but its importance is very minute. If I ever got to the place where I care more about us winning games than treating kids and the effect we have on their lives, then I would be in the wrong place.”

It was unexpected for Hendryx when he received news he had been accepted into the hall of fame. But for those that know Hendryx and are familiar with his coaching record, it was no surprise. He didn’t get the call from the hall, but rather an impromptu visit from his brother Mark breaking the joyful news.

John Hendryx

“I was going to get the call, but my brother Mark knew about it and he said no, you’re not doing that. I was sitting in my room, and Mark comes walking to my door, which never happens. I almost immediately went into panic mode. He called me out in the hallway and said, you were supposed to get a call today, but I told them that’s not happening. I’m going to do this. That was beyond special.” he said.

“I was extremely ecstatic when I found out John made it to the hall of fame,” said Winamac athletic director Bill Ball. “He’s an extremely deserving individual. To be honest, I’m surprised it hasn’t happened before now. Not many coaches can say they’ve been to four different schools, had a winning record and success at every school, won a sectional at every single school, whether it be 1A, 2A or 3A. He’s turned every program around and it’s a well-deserved honor.”

“I think it’s his relationships that set him apart. It’s not the X’s and O’s, even though he is a brilliant X’s and O’s guy. I’ve known the Hendryx family as a little kid growing up near them. I’ve known John for a long time and admire the way he handles himself. He’s a great football coach but a great person,” Ball added.

Among the criteria for all hall of fame candidates must have contributed significantly to the game of football in Indiana.

It goes without saying, Hendryx made his mark on the game wherever he has called home. No matter where he has coached, he has elevated every program to a championship level. In 28 years of coaching, he has compiled a 224-96 record, one state championship, two semi-state championships and multiple sectional wins while coaching at Carroll, Northwestern and Knox. He coached Knox to its first sectional title in school history in 2019. Last fall in his first season with the Winamac Warriors, Hendryx guided his team to a sectional title. He has had just three losing seasons in his coaching career. Hendryx ranks 13th on the list of current winningest coaches in Indiana.

Hendryx is quick to credit his wife for keeping him grounded and focused over the years and his three daughters, who were very excited about the news. “I’ll never downplay how blessed I have been. My wife is as big an influence on me as anybody has ever been. She has been phenomenal about why I’m doing it. She has always done a great job of letting me know where the vision is supposed to be,” he said.

“I’ve had so many great coaches with me along the way too,” he said. “Football is a little bit different from other things. You have to have good people with you. I’ve been so blessed with so many good guys helping me and really good kids that have been willing to work. They are as many winners and responsible for this as I am. I think being like a family is a lot of it. It’s that way here, at Knox, at Northwestern, at Carroll. There are guys that I’m still very close to. We didn’t coach together and then walk away. It’s never been that way. They are still some of the best friends I have. I think that’s a big reason for all the success.”

Hendryx grew up around the football program as a young boy, played for the Warriors and is a 1980 Winamac grad. Some notable things have happened on Roudebush Field, including winning his 200th career game as a head coach with the Knox Redskins. Going into the hall of fame as a Warrior is another moment Hendryx couldn’t have predicted. “Being here at Winamac is special to me. I don’t think it’s any secret that I’m not 25 anymore and I can’t do this forever. It’s nice to be able to finish up where I started,” he commented.

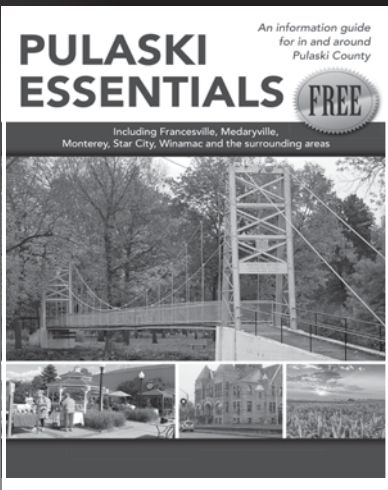

Ball echoed the sentiment, “He’s been doing this for years and has only been back at Winamac for one year and finds out he gets to go in as a Warrior. I think that is pretty cool.”

“I think, for the school, it means a great deal. Coach Roth was also inducted while he was here and I think that speaks volumes about the football program we have. We are proud to be a part of that and have John as part of our staff. It’s not just football. He makes a difference in all aspects from his relationships with the students and staff. He is one of those rare breeds that has a connection with people,” Ball stated.
