HERE'S WHAT YOU MISSED IN THIS WEEK'S PULASKI COUNTY JOURNAL

Sheriff's deputy recognized for service

Amber L. Tomlinson

Pulaski County Sheriff Jeff Richwine believes in commending officers who do as they are trained to the best of their ability and a recent life-threatening incident gave him reason to bestow a medal of valor.

The medal of valor was presented to Pulaski County Sheriff's Deputy Branson Eber on June 2, because of his actions during the fatality incident on March 28.

Richwine said he struggled with presenting the award because a life was lost but Eber protected those around him. Richwine was not praising Eber for shooting the assailant but for having a sound mind in the face of danger.

Richwine said on the day that the incident occurred, Eber had only been on duty for about 30 minutes. One of the county dispatchers was listening to the radio traffic from other counties and alerted Eber of the situation that had the potential to pass through Pulaski County. At that time, Eber headed to U.S. 421.

The fatal shooting of Peter J. Doffin Jr., 36, of Lafayette, happened after a pursuit by police from several different agencies. Doffin Jr. was suspected of kidnapping his daughter from Warren County and then leading police on a pursuit through Tippecanoe, Carroll and White counties until it ended 1 mile south of the intersection of SR 114 or about 4 miles south of Francesville.

According to the Indiana State Police investigation, Doffin Jr. exited the vehicle and was brandishing a knife after he was told repeatedly to drop the weapon. Officers who were involved in the shooting included Eber, Tippecanoe County Sheriff's deputies Jodi Rohler and Jon Eads, and Monon Town Marshal Roger Young.

Other officers who assisted at the scene included the Indiana State Police, Flora Police Department, Monon Police Department, Monticello Police Department and White County Sheriff's Office.

Shortly after the incident, Pulaski County Prosecuting Attorney Daniel P. Murphy announced that criminal charges would not be filed against the officers, who acted in accordance to law.

As part of the medal of valor award, Richwine cited Eber's professionalism while in a life-threatening situation. Eber is credited for keeping safe a kidnapped juvenile, other officers at the scene, the citizens of Pulaski County and the citizens of the State of Indiana.

The medal of valor citation states, "Your ability to remain calm and make effective decisions under stress, directly reflect a high level of training and experience in your time as a law enforcement officer. You have honored your obligations, displayed the courage of your convictions, and exhibited the highest degree of commitment."

Richwine said after the state police concluded their investigation, they told him that Eber conducted himself professionally and without hesitation.

"I just thought that he acted flawlessly," Richwine said.

Richwine also heard from another person who was at the scene that Eber didn't hesitate to check on the safety of others and take care of those around him. The person said Eber helped save his life.

"He was in a tough situation and he was a shining example of law enforcement at its best," Richwine said.

Pulaski County Sheriff's Deputy Branson Eber recently received the medal of valor for his bravery during a fatality incident on March 28. He was presented the award by fellow deputy Seth Barton.
