These beautiful coonhounds were owner-surrendered when the owner's employment took him away for long periods. They have been cared for very well. Both have beautiful shiny coats, are spayed and up-to-date on vaccinations. They are playful and loving. Available as a set or individually.

On September 16th, the artillery piece of American Legion Post #71 was removed from its location to be refurbished. We'd like to thank the town and county personnel for volunteering and assisting the Legion volunteers with the removal. Once restoration is complete, the anti-tank weapon will be returned to its static display location at Post #71, Winamac. Moorehead Technologies is providing this service as their way of giving back to those who serve.
